JURY TRIAL DEMANDED

PETITION

COMES NOW, Plaintiff Latondra R. Chatman (“Plaintiff” or “Chatman”), by and through her undersigned counsel, Gregory D. Vescovo, Jr. of Morgan & Morgan, P.A., and for her cause of action against Defendants, Marten Muayd Nasir (“Defendant” or “Nasir”) and BNK Transport Inc. (“Defendant” or “BNK”), states to the Court as follows:

PARTIES

1. At all times relevant hereto, Plaintiff Latondra R. Chatman is a citizen and resident of the State of Tennessee.

2. At all relevant times hereto, Defendant Marten Muayd Nasir was and is a citizen and resident of the State of Michigan, and, on information and belief, was an employee of Defendant BNK Transport Inc., operating within the course and scope of his employment, and operated the commercial vehicle which gives rise to the litigation.

3. At all relevant times hereto, Defendant BNK Transport Inc., is a for-profit corporation with its principal office and place of business in Indiana who, upon information and belief, regularly soliciting and transacts business in the State of Missouri.

VENUE AND PERSONAL JURISDICTION

4. Venue is proper in the Circuit Court of Cape Girardeau County pursuant to MO. REV. STAT. § 508.010 because Plaintiff was first injured in Cape Girardeau County.

5. Jurisdiction is proper over the Defendants in the State of Missouri pursuant to at least MO. REV. STAT. § 506.500 because Defendants committed tortious acts herein described within the State of Missouri.

ALLEGATIONS COMMON TO ALL COUNTS

6. That on or about July 30, 2021, Plaintiff was operating a 2017 Volvo in Cape Girardeau County, Missouri.

7. That Plaintiff was travelling in a generally southern direction on Interstate 55 (“I-55”).

8. That I-55 is a public thoroughfare which passes through, among other areas, Cape Girardeau County, Missouri.

9. That on or about July 30, 2021, Defendant Nasir was operating a 2018 Freightliner tractor with accompanying enclosed utility trailer in Cape Girardeau County, Missouri.

10. The tractor trailer being operated by Defendant Nasir was owned by and operated under the authority of Defendant BNK Transport Inc.

11. That Defendant Nasir entered the tractor trailer owned by Defendant BNK Transport Inc. and proceeded to drive and attempted to merge onto southbound I-55 from Ramp 93.

12. That Defendant Nasir failed to keep a proper lookout and failed to yield to Plaintiff's right of way when attempting to merge onto southbound I-55.

13. That the left rear corner of the towed unit driven by Defendant Nasir struck the right front side of the vehicle being operated by Plaintiff.

14. That Plaintiff did not have a chance to avoid the collision due to its sudden and unforeseeable nature, and the aforementioned events occurred with no negligence on the part of Plaintiff.

COUNT I
Plaintiff v. Defendant Nasir (Negligence)

15. Plaintiff hereby restates and incorporates by reference each and every allegation contained in paragraphs 1 through 14 as if fully set forth herein.

16. That Defendant Nasir failed to keep a proper lookout and failed to yield to Plaintiff's right of way when attempting to merge onto southbound I-55.

17. That the left rear corner of the towed unit driven by Defendant Nasir struck the right front side of the vehicle being operated by Plaintiff.

18. That Plaintiff did not have a chance to avoid the collision due to its sudden and unforeseeable nature, and the aforementioned events occurred with no negligence on the part of Plaintiff.

19. That the injuries and damages alleged by Plaintiff were directly and proximately caused by the negligence committed by Defendant in at least the following respects, to wit:

- a. Defendant Nasir failed to exercise the highest degree of care when he failed keep a careful lookout while operating his motor vehicle;
- b. Defendant Nasir failed to exercise the highest degree of care when he attempted to merge and entered Plaintiff's lanes of travel;

- c. Defendant Nasir failed to exercise the highest degree of care when he failed to yield to Plaintiff's right of way;
- d. Defendant Nasir failed to exercise the highest degree of care by knowing that there was a reasonable likelihood of collision and thereafter could have stopped, but failed to do so;
- e. Defendant Nasir failed to exercise the highest degree of care by knowing that there was a reasonable likelihood of collision and thereafter could have slackened speed, but failed to do so;
- f. Defendant Nasir failed to exercise the highest degree of care by knowing that there was a reasonable likelihood of collision and thereafter could have sounded a warning, but failed to do so;
- g. Defendant Nasir failed to exercise the highest degree of care when he allowed Defendant's vehicle to come into contact with Plaintiff's vehicle.

20. That each and all of the aforesaid acts and violations of law by Defendant Nasir, both of commission and of omission, were negligent and constituted negligence.

21. That each and all of the aforesaid acts and violations of law by Defendant Nasir, both of commission and of omission, were a direct and proximate cause of the damages and injuries hereinafter described.

22. That as a direct and proximate result of the aforesaid acts by Defendant Nasir, both of omission and commission, Plaintiff suffered serious, painful, and permanent injuries to her back, neck, hips, shoulders and body as a whole.

23. That as a direct and proximate result of the aforesaid acts by, both of omission and commission, Plaintiff became sick, sore, lame, and disordered.

Directions to Officer Making Return on Service of Summons

A copy of the summons and petition must be served on each defendant/respondent. If any defendant/respondent refuses to receive the copy of the summons and petition when offered, the return shall be prepared accordingly so as to show the offer of the officer to deliver the summons and petition and the defendant's/respondent's refusal to receive the same.

Service shall be made: (1) On Individual. On an individual, including an infant or incompetent person not having a legally appointed guardian, by delivering a copy of the summons and petition personally to the individual or by leaving a copy of the summons and petition at the individual's dwelling house or usual place of abode with some person at least 18 years of age residing therein, or by delivering a copy of the summons and petition to an agent authorized by appointment or required by law to receive service of process; (2) On Guardian. On an infant or incompetent person who has a legally appointed guardian, by delivering a copy of the summons and petition to the guardian personally; (3) On Corporation, Partnership or Other Unincorporated Association. On a corporation, partnership or unincorporated association, by delivering a copy of the summons and petition to an officer, partner, or managing or general agent, or by leaving the copies at any business office of the defendant/respondent with the person having charge thereof or by delivering copies to its registered agent or to any other agent authorized by appointment or required by law to receive service of process; (4) On Public or Quasi-Public Corporation or Body. Upon a public, municipal, governmental or quasi-public corporation or body in the case of a county, to the mayor or city clerk or city attorney in the case of a city, to the chief executive officer in the case of any public, municipal, governmental, or quasi-public corporation or body or to any person otherwise lawfully so designated.

Service may be made by an officer or deputy authorized by law to serve process in civil actions within the state or territory where such service is made.

Service may be made in any state or territory of the United States. If served in a territory, substitute the word "territory" for the word "state."

The office making the service must swear an affidavit before the clerk, deputy clerk, or judge of the court of which the person is an officer or other person authorized to administer oaths. This affidavit must state the time, place, and manner of service, the official character of the affiant, and the affiant's authority to serve process in civil actions within the state or territory where service is made.

Service must be made less than 10 days nor more than 30 days from the date the defendant/respondent is to appear in court. The return should be made promptly, and in any event so that it will reach the Missouri court within 30 days after service.
